On February 27, 2018, Deputy Robert Bolanos #[redacted] was working at Locke High School as a school resource deputy. At approximately 1200 hours, Locke High School [redacted] (Witness [redacted]) contacted Deputy Bolanos and the [redacted] (Witness [redacted]), regarding school staff detaining an uncooperative student (Subject [redacted]) in the vice principal's office. Subject [redacted] was detained for being in an unauthorized area of the school, coupled with the fact school administrators believed he smelled of marijuana.

Deputy Bolanos contacted Subject [redacted] and smelled the odor of marijuana emitting from Subject [redacted] person. Deputy Bolanos explained to Subject Flores he was going to search him for the source of the smell. Subject [redacted] told Deputy Bolanos he knew his rights and would not submit to a search.

Deputy Bolanos took hold of Subject [redacted] left wrist at which time, Subject [redacted] immediately pulled his left arm away and stepped toward an adjacent wall. Deputy Bolanos pulled Subject [redacted] left arm behind Subject [redacted] back and placed a handcuff onto his left wrist. Subject [redacted] immediately began to violently gyrate his upper body in an effort to keep Deputy Bolanos from handcuffing his right wrist. As Subject [redacted] continued his physical resistance, he intentionally struck the left side of his head on a nearby wall.

Witnesses [redacted] and [redacted] saw Deputy Bolanos struggle with Subject [redacted] Witnesses [redacted] and [redacted] approached Deputy Bolanos to assist him detain Subject [redacted] Witnesses [redacted] and [redacted] stood on each side of Subject [redacted] and took hold of Subject [redacted] upper arms in an effort to stop him from moving around the room. Deputy Bolanos maintained a grip of Subject [redacted] left wrist. Unable to move around the room, Subject [redacted] dropped to his knees, thrusted his body forward, striking his head on the tiled floor. Deputy Bolanos and the witnesses held onto Subject [redacted] as he went to the floor.

Witnesses [redacted] and [redacted] were able to gain control of Subject [redacted] right arm and maneuvered it behind his (Subject [redacted]) back. At the request of Deputy Bolanos, Witness [redacted] placed a handcuff around Subject [redacted] right wrist.

Once handcuffed, Subject [redacted] ceased his resistance. Deputy Bolanos assisted Subject [redacted] to his feet and had Subject [redacted] sit in a chair inside of the office. Subject [redacted] still would not allow Deputy Bolanos to search him.

Subject [redacted] ([redacted], who had been summoned to the school by school staff, arrived shortly thereafter. Subject [redacted] was then searched by Deputy Bolanos; a lighter, metal smoking pipe and an orange container containing marijuana was recovered in his right sock. Subject [redacted] was subsequently detained for Possession of Marijuana on School Grounds, 11357(e) HS.

The injuries are treated by having patients place their arm in a sling and usually take one to two weeks for a full recovery. The orthopedic surgeon additionally stated it was possible for the injury to occur if someone fell to the ground as their arm was being held.

On November 30, 2018, Hamlet Yarijanian contacted Sergeant Morales by telephone and stated he had a cell phone video recording of the incident but would not share with him unless Subject [redacted] gave consent. Sergeant Morales told Hamlet Yarijanian that [redacted] stated he had not hired Hamlet Yarijanian as his attorney. INVESTIGATION

WITNESS [redacted]

On April 12, 2018, IAB investigators interviewed Witness [redacted] who is the [redacted] of Locke High School.

Witness [redacted] stated on February 27, 2018, she overheard school staff discussing truant students on campus who were being brought to the vice principal's office. She met her staff and the students (Subject [redacted] and Witness [redacted] in the office and learned what had taken place from the [redacted] (Witness [redacted].

After hearing about Subject [redacted] refusal to be searched, Witness [redacted] heard Subject [redacted] yelling out random statements to a second student (Witness [redacted]) who was also detained in the office. Witness [redacted] heard Subject [redacted] aggressively tell Witness [redacted] "I'm not going down for this, this is all you, why did you pick it up" [Refer to transcripts, page 3, lines 9-13].

After Witness [redacted] saw Subject [redacted] behavior and his refusal to be searched, Witness [redacted] had a short conversation with him (Subject [redacted] regarding their need to search him. Initially, Subject [redacted] agreed to allow staff to search him. However, as Witness [redacted] began to search his lower leg, Subject [redacted] became agitated and said, "no you can't search me it's illegal, you are not going to search me."

Witness [redacted] recalled after she heard Subject [redacted] refusal, she told Subject [redacted] she needed to have the deputy get involved. Witness [redacted] relayed the situation to Deputy Bolanos and expressed her concerns about the incident. Witness [redacted] expressed to Deputy Bolanos that when a student is as upset as Subject [redacted] was coupled with his refusal to be searched, it sends a red flag to administrators that the student may possess something (weapon or drugs) he shouldn't have [Refer to transcripts, page 3, lines 20-30].

Witness [redacted] remembered after she walked Deputy Bolanos to the office, she had to attend to a phone call and left the office. She did not see any interaction between Deputy Bolanos and Subject [redacted] Witness [redacted] stated the ambulance arrived at the school to attend to Subject [redacted] approximately ten minutes after she left the office [Refer to transcripts, page 5, lines 1-10].

Witness [redacted] confirmed the school's standard procedure is to immediately notify a parent of a child when they are detained by school staff. She did not know who called Subject [redacted]

WITNESS [redacted]

On February 27, 2018, Century Station Sergeants Thomas Lynch #[redacted] and Troy Rodriguez #[redacted] interviewed Witness [redacted] who is an [redacted] at Locke High School. On April 12, 2018, IAB investigators interviewed Witness [redacted] The following is a combined summary of the interviews. For exact wording and verbatim statements, refer to transcripts.

Witness [redacted] was in the office when Subject [redacted] refused to be searched by school staff. Witness [redacted] was aware Subject [redacted] and Witness [redacted] were detained for being in an unauthorized area of the school during class time.

Witness [redacted] heard Subject [redacted] curse at Witness [redacted] who was detained in the office as well. Subject [redacted] also refused to be searched. At one point, Subject [redacted] told Witness [redacted] he was going to leave and walked toward the office door. Witness [redacted] moved in front of Subject [redacted] and told him to remain seated. Witness [redacted] described Subject [redacted] demeanor to be unlike any other contact he has had with him in the past. Subject [redacted] demeanor led Witness [redacted] to believe he possessed something he shouldn't have.

Witness [redacted] heard Deputy Bolanos try and gain Subject [redacted] cooperation to be searched. However, Subject [redacted] continued to refuse and stated he knew his rights.

Witness [redacted] saw Deputy Bolanos reach out and grab Subject [redacted] left arm as Subject [redacted] backed away from Deputy Bolanos and stated he was not going to be searched. Witness [redacted] stated Subject [redacted] immediately began to resist Deputy Bolanos' efforts to physically detain him. Witness [redacted] saw Subject [redacted] pull his arm away from Deputy Bolanos and flail his body around in an effort to get away from Deputy Bolanos. Subject [redacted] threw himself into a wall, followed by a stack of papers then into another wall. Witness [redacted] was not sure if any part of Subject [redacted] body had struck the wall.

Witness [redacted] approached Subject [redacted] and took hold of his right side as Deputy Bolanos and Witness [redacted] took hold of his left side. Subject [redacted] continued to struggle as the three of them held onto him. Suddenly, and without warning, Subject [redacted] dropped to his knees on his own volition. Subject [redacted] then leaned forward and placed his head onto the floor. Witness [redacted] noted, it was his belief Subject [redacted] put his head on the floor because he (Subject [redacted]) was recording the incident on his cell phone.

As Witness [redacted] watched Subject [redacted] record the incident, he heard Subject [redacted] yell out "false statements." The statements included, "He's hitting me", "Ah, my arm", and "Let me go." Witness [redacted] stated Subject [redacted] claims were without merit.

Witness [redacted] documented his observations on a "School Incident Statement" report [EXHIBIT C].

WITNESS [redacted]

On February 27, 2018, Century Station Sergeants Thomas Lynch #[redacted] and Troy Rodriguez #[redacted] interviewed Witness [redacted] who is the school security coordinator. On April 12, 2018, IAB investigators interviewed Witness [redacted] The following is a combined summary of the interviews. For exact wording and verbatim statements refer to transcripts.

Witness [redacted] and additional school staff requested Deputy Bolanos to assist them with a student who was being detained in the office. The student (Subject [redacted]) was uncooperative, resistant and smelled of marijuana. The staff requested Deputy Bolanos to search the student for possible marijuana possession.

Witness [redacted] stated when Deputy Bolanos contacted Subject [redacted] he immediately became uncooperative. Witness [redacted] saw Subject [redacted] begin to record the incident on his cellular phone. All the while, Subject [redacted] repeatedly stated he knew his rights and staff was not able to touch or search him without his parents present.

Witness [redacted] saw Deputy Bolanos take hold of Subject [redacted] by grabbing his left wrist and upper left arm. Subject [redacted] immediately began to resist Deputy Bolanos' grasp by flailing his arms from side to side. Simultaneously, Subject [redacted] said, "You can't touch me, you can't touch me." While Subject [redacted] continued to flail his arms, he maneuvered his back against one of the office walls. After Deputy Bolanos turned Subject [redacted] body to face the wall, Subject [redacted] banged his head against the wall and said, "My head, my head."

Deputy Bolanos moved Subject [redacted] away from the wall, at which time, Subject [redacted] continued to resist by flailing his arms and moving about. When Subject [redacted] was moved away from the wall, Subject [redacted] dropped to the floor. When Subject [redacted] dropped to the floor, he struck his head on the floor and screamed out, "My head, my head."

Witnesses [redacted] and [redacted] assisted Deputy Bolanos, who told them to take "hold of the cuff." Witness [redacted] took hold of one of the handcuff loops and guided Subject [redacted] right arm to his back and placed the handcuff onto his wrist; Deputy Bolanos had already handcuffed Subject [redacted] left hand. Witness [redacted] advised Deputy Bolanos when the second handcuff was secured. Deputy Bolanos assisted Subject [redacted] to his feet and sat him in a chair.

Approximately ten to fifteen minutes later, Subject [redacted] arrived at the school and entered the office. The [redacted] was upset, even after he (Witness [redacted] explained what had taken place. Witness [redacted] told Subject [redacted] any injury which Subject [redacted] indicated he had, was not caused by Deputy Bolanos or staff.
